

Frågor om våld

Being subjected to violence affects how you feel both physically and mentally. That's why we're asking. Violence can involve you being subjected to it personally, seeing someone else being subjected to it, or you yourself subjecting someone to it. You can receive help if you have been subjected to violence or have subjected someone else to violence.

Has anyone done something which has caused you to feel controlled, frightened or worried?

Yes

No

Have you been gripped, pushed, beaten, kicked or injured in any other way?

Yes

No

Have you felt yourself pressured or forced to perform sexual acts?

Yes

No

When growing up, did you see or hear anyone close to you being subjected to violence?

Yes

No

Have you subjected anyone else to violence, e.g. gripped them, pushed, kicked or beaten them?

Yes

No

Have you forced anyone to perform sexual acts?

Yes

No

Has any child with whom you live or have lived been subjected to violence?

Yes

No

Do you have anything more to tell?